Set in the picturesque Georgian streets of Bath, there couldn't be a more beautiful setting for a Christmas Market. Over 200 chalets display a wonderful variety of handmade and locally sourced gifts. There's also a splendid selection of local caterers serving up delicious festive-themed food and drink.

Bath has so much to offer - museums, art galleries, sightseeing tours and of course the famous Roman Baths.

Just choose what you might wish to do and book in advance or just decide on the day what appeals to you most.
