The Battle of Agincourt 1415

Tuesday, 4th October at 10.30 on Zoom

In October 1415 a small force of weary, hungry and demoralised Englishmen, led by King Henry V, inflicted a crushing defeat on an army of fresh, well-armed Frenchmen, many times their number. How did this happen? Or did Shakespeare get it wrong?

Patsy and Ted Thornton will share with you the tale of the events that led up to the conflict, and the unfolding of the clash of arms itself on 25th October. Where possible, they will quote from eye-witness accounts.

This event is free of charge, as the speakers are u3a members. Please book electronically by clicking on the 'TICKETSOURCE' icon immediately below the event on www.u3atvnetwork.org.uk This is by far the best and easiest option. You will receive an acknowledgement immediately and the Zoom link about 48 hours before the event. If you have any problems, please contact the organiser Patsy Thornton on patsy@thorntac.co.uk giving your name and the u3a to which you belong.

Closing date for applications is Saturday, 1st October

If you have not received the Zoom link by midday on 3rd October, please check your spam/junk mail box before contacting the organiser as above. PLEASE DO NOT WAIT UNTIL THE DAY OF THE EVENT
